

BIG DIRTY BOOTS

Big Dirty Boots Bio

Big Dirty Boots bring together a blend of West Coast Country, Folk and Americana, rooted in childhood friendship. This rich history brings playful stage banter and a relaxed but engaging musical chemistry that makes audiences feel at home. Patty Castle, Feature Booker at the Victoria Folk Music Society praised their live show: "Big Dirty Boots delivers electrifying acoustic performances, seamlessly blending bluegrass drive, folk earthiness and pop hooks. Their undeniable stage chemistry shines whether they're delivering sharp, heartfelt original songs or putting their own inventive twist on well-selected covers."

Drawing on influences such as early Ed Sheeran, Tim O'Brien, or Be Good Tanyas their music is built around original harmony driven songs in the spirit of Milk Carton Kids. Kaj Falch-Nielsen & Tad Ruszel share lead vocals, play guitars, mandolin, and kick drum with Dave Peters supporting on the bass and cello.

Big Dirty Boots were finalists for the Georgia Straight's Best of Vancouver 2023, fan favourites at West Coast Festivals like Boots n Boats, and Islands Folk Festival in 2026, and have dozens of sync placements for film and television. With the first of two albums out from their recent release Heartbreak and Fairytales, there is plenty of buzz for the upcoming singles arriving throughout this year.
